

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat, delivered by carriers throughout the city, is at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or six dollars per year, always in advance.

CITY NEWS.

One of the largest sized Adams presses, in complete order, is offered for sale. It is as good as new and will be sold at a bargain, as we have no use for it. Apply at the Democrat office.

The Evening News.
We have in the Evening News of yesterday a full list of the names drawn in the supplemental draft for Jefferson county militia. It contained a break demand for our paper. Thousands of copies were sold by the news boys, and up to a late hour last night the paper was still called for.

The "News" is served to all parts of the city by prompt and faithful carriers. All orders left at the clerk's desk or with the carriers themselves will receive due attention.

Frankfort Penitentiary Burnt.
The train from Frankfort reports that on Friday morning the Frankfort Penitentiary was burning, the fire having caught in the chair factory, about eleven o'clock Thursday night. The great mill and chair factory, and much of the contents, were burnt, together with other property, amounting in all to fifty thousand dollars.

Two frame houses across the street were ignited by the fire, and one of them destroyed and the other considerably damaged.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Benefit of S. T. Simons this afternoon. "Black Eyed Susan" and "All that Glitters is not Gold."

Er. Vincent's Fair.—The Masonic Temple was filled to overflowing on Thanksgiving night, and last night it was equally as full of ladies, gentlemen and children, all of whom were delighted with the exhibition and liberal in their contributions. A new feature has been added to the Fair; a telegraph line has been connected with the outer world, by which persons can telegraph to any point in the room.

At the time the Fair was opened, there were other additional attractions, which have been since the Fair began. As to the telegraph line, we have no doubt that the house will be completely jammed. If it is not, we can truly say it should be, if it were to go there and enjoy your selves, go for the benefit of the little orphan. Fill the house up to night.

With the consent of the press of the city, the managers of the Temperance Department of the Fair have made arrangements with Mr. Tyler, the agent of the Associated Press, to furnish them with a condensed report of all the important news received from the hours of nine o'clock p. m. and twelve o'clock at midnight.

Mr. Joseph R. Heenan, the telegraphic reporter, has volunteered to supply frequent reports of the gold market in New York at the night board.

These reports will be bulletined at the "Lion" and "Lionville" booths, and read from the stage as quick as received.

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly. The soldiers at the several hospitals in this city and Jeffersonville all enjoyed their dinner heartily, and we are happy to say, everything passed off in the most quiet and appropriate manner. The ladies and gentlemen to whom they are indebted for their most excellent feast, and the interest displayed by them in their behalf, will long be remembered by the soldiers. The day was generously observed by our citizens; all the business houses and military depots were closed, and the good order which prevailed did honor to our city.

THANKS.—Mrs. John McCrory, Miss Rose Dunn and Mrs. John Dunn, of St. Patrick's table at the Vincent's Fair, have our thanks for their kind remembrance of us last night in the shape of a splendid supper, which we relished most heartily. Long may the St. Patrick's fair daughters live to remember the orphan and the orphan.

The house of Thomas H. Harrison, situated on Jefferson, between Ninth and Tenth streets, was burglariously entered on Wednesday night, by the removal of the shutters, and the thief abstracted therefrom his hat, coat, and clock, and decamped through the same opening.

A large number of refugees mostly women and children, passed up the river Thursday on board the steamer J. H. Baldwin, from Nashville, Tenn. We did not learn their place of destination.

John A. G. Brooks, of Sullivan county, Tennessee, who left Knoxville some six weeks ago, on claim of the whereabouts of his wife by calling at this office.

The Post-Silver Band attracted a fine audience of ladies and gentlemen last evening around post headquarters, where they were discoursing delightful music.

THE STREET RAILROADS IN OPERATION.
The cars of the City Railway Company were placed on the track Thursday by General Boyle, the President of the company, in commemoration of Thanksgiving which was proclaimed by the President of the United States and the Governor of the State. There was the greatest interest manifested by our citizens, and the cars yesterday and the day before were crowded. The road is well laid, and, as far as we could judge, all right. The drivers and conductors are all new and inexperienced, but a few days will suffice to demonstrate the thorough management of Mr. Hager, the managing director and general superintendent. The cars yesterday commenced running regularly from Twelfth to Wexel streets. The track will soon be completed to the head of Main street, or Beargrass, when the cars will run regularly.

We trust that the rails will be laid to Portland and over our main thoroughfares, checking the whole city, as it will impart a new life and vitality to the place.

The cars are large, capacious and furnished in the very best manner, so that a person can have a pleasant and comfortable ride without being crowded in a small, dirty omnibus. They will have to take a ride on them in order to appreciate the great improvement.

We will give a synopsis of the rules and regulations for the conductors and drivers, that our citizens may see the care taken by the company for the accommodation of the public.

C. T. MERRIMAN'S CLOAK AND MANTILLA HOUSE.—One of the largest and most successful houses of the kind in the Union is at the Fourth street, under the National Hotel. Mr. Merriman, the gentlemanly proprietor, has been in the business for many years, and has always been the first to introduce in our city the latest styles and finest qualities of ladies' furs, cloaks, shawls, mantillas and silk velvets, besides the finest assortment of cloth for clothing. He has just imported a stock of ladies' cloaks and mantillas, cut in the most fashionable style and manufactured by the most skilled workmen. He also has one of the largest and finest importations of ladies' furs we have ever seen. We advise the ladies to pay Mr. Merriman a visit, and he will take pleasure in showing you his excellent stock, and give you a bargain in anything you may choose to purchase in his house.

A CASE OF DEAFNESS CURED BY SEVERAL YEARS STANDING.—Dr. Gardner, the skillful oculist and ear, nose and throat specialist, performed a successful operation yesterday at his office, at the Louisville Hotel, the patient being Mr. B. Brainerd, of Volney, Kentucky, who is well known in different parts of this State. When the operation commenced, he was with difficulty able to distinguish the loudest sound, and before he had been in the room, could understand ordinary conversation. Though neither so difficult or protracted as many operations both on the eye and ear the doctor has performed during his stay here, it was successfully done. Mr. Brainerd is stopping at the Galt House, and will certify to the above statement. Dr. Gardner can be consulted daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., at the Louisville Hotel, on all diseases of the eye and ear. The office should go and consult him.

AN ESCAPED PRISONER RECAPTURED.—On Thursday officers Bligh and Gallagher arrested the rebel Colonel Rose, of an East Tennessee regiment, at the Galt House in this city. Rose was captured by General Gilliam, near Bull's Gap, and was forwarded a few days since, with a number of other officers, to Johnson's Island under guard. On the way Rose succeeded in making his escape and returned to the city. At the time he was arrested he was on a fine black overcoat, which, being removed, exposed a fine rebel uniform. Rose was turned over to the Provost Marshal and will be forwarded to Johnson's Island.

FINE TOBACCO.—Messrs. Muselman & Co., of this city, contributed for the benefit of St. Vincent's Fair a splendid box of Emperor tobacco. One hundred and thirty-seven cases at $1 each were gotten up, which, being removed, exposed a fine rebel uniform. Rose was turned over to the Provost Marshal and will be forwarded to Johnson's Island.

THE LUCKY THUNDER.—Mr. Wm. H. Ehrlich, and the more lucky winner was Mr. Tom Tidwell, for whom Mr. E. threw. It was a splendid sample of tobacco, and the worthy donor deserves patronage for their generosity.

DONATION.—Mr. John Judge presented the ladies and gentlemen of the Central fancy table with a magnificent gold thimble, valued at $30, to be raffled off at the fair, the proceeds to be given for the benefit of the orphan.

This was a J. B. anti-photic act, and we judge there are others who might imitate him in this clever act.

A number of persons, political prisoners, were released from the military prison yesterday and sent north of the Ohio river, to remain there until this title difficulty between Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Davis is settled. They took the oath before they went in memory of the occasion.

RAID ON A COW.—An innocent babbled short-horn cow, commencing down Walnut street yesterday afternoon, when a dozen boys made a raid upon her, putting her to flight. The cow now stood supported the biggest calf she ever raised—until she threw him off.

BARRECKS.—A large number of soldiers were received at the Barracks yesterday. Fourteen hundred and forty-two convalescents were sent to Nashville, thirty-seven to Lexington, eighteen to Cincinnati and twenty-seven to Cairo, Illinois.

Job Printing of all Descriptions, in Plain and Fancy Colors, Neatly Executed, at the Shortest Possible Notice. Call and Examine Specimens and learn prices.

CITY.—Yesterday was a pleasant day and business was very brisk throughout the city. Nothing of importance occurred. Military matters were dull.

Two hundred and seventy-five men were brought to the Q. M. Department were furnished with transportation to Nashville yesterday.

A one thousand dollar diamond ring was recently stolen from a lady in New York by an Irish waiting maid.

There are about one hundred refugees, men, women and children, now at the Refuge Home in this city.

Five hundred and forty-eight rebel prisoners of war were sent to Camp Douglas on Thursday.

Two parties of far-ouge last.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—This fashionable place of amusement was again crowded on last evening with the elite and fashion of the city, on the occasion of the benefit of the talented young tragedian, Mr. Edwin Adams. "Rochester Adams" was the leading attraction, and he received with thundering rounds of applause. Tonight is the last of Mr. Adams, when the same bill will be produced. Mr. Adams is followed by the "Beneficent and New-ton combination" on Monday evening. At half past two o'clock this afternoon there will be a grand matinee for the benefit of the same children. The bill offered on that occasion is one of unusual interest, and those wishing to spend a pleasant and profitable afternoon should not fail to attend.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Miss Emily Thorne was greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, on the occasion of her farewell benefit in our city. Tonight will be her last in our city, when she appears as Josephine, in the "Child of the Regiment," and Rosalie, in "Sixteen-string Jack." At the matinee this afternoon Miss Thorne will appear as Capitola Black, in the "Hidden Hand."

STEAMER FIRED INTO.—The steamer Nautilus fired into by guerrillas at Cumberland Gap, Tennessee. The guerrillas, number, took some twelve or fourteen in the shelter behind the piles of Government lumber upon the bank, and fired over thirty shots at the boat. We were lucky in that that passed entirely through a box of glass and dropped close by a passenger's foot. There were several narrow escapes, but no one was hurt.

THE THIRTY-FOURTH KENTUCKY.—Yesterday saw a dispatch from the Thirty-fourth Kentucky, dated Cumberland Gap, November 25th, which stated that that gallant regiment would move from there to-day for the front. The boys were expecting to have the privilege of paying their homes a visit, and will feel greatly disappointed at the order to move to the front; but being true and tried soldiers they will never flinch from their duty.

JOB PRINTING.
The Job Department in the Democrat Office is ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

GUERRILLAS ON THE FRANKFORT TURNPIKE.
On Thursday afternoon a squad of fifteen guerrillas, on the Frankfort turnpike, near Middletown, robbed Dr. Early of $15, Dr. Pearce of a watch, and a man on the pike, near the second toll gate, of $45. They also took from David Hall a spur, and went on their way without further molestation to the neighborhood, so far as we could learn.

The city was quite quiet over the draft yesterday. Indeed it monopolized the excitement of the day. The notice was so short that the various "clubs" in the city were up and active to prepare for the "impending danger." It is over, and many will breathe freer now, while others, "grafted into the army," are already taking their first lessons.

SKIRMISH.—Capt. Julius Fowles, Assistant Inspector General of cavalry, was succeeded yesterday at his office by the band of the Fifth Indiana cavalry. The members of the band, after discussing sweet music for over half an hour, were invited into the office, where they had a fine time generally.

The Ninth Kentucky regiment, infantry, arrived from the front yesterday. Their term of service having expired, they will be mustered out of the service. They have experienced a great many hardships during their time of service.

Thanks to J. M. Hostler, the ever attentive Messenger of Adams & Co.'s Express, and to Healey West, for promptly delivering our Eastern exchanges in advance of the mail.

PERSONAL.—Mr. M. A. Fincher and Mr. D. A. Peely, of Chicago, passed through the city yesterday, en route for Nashville. They looked like two brand new silver half dollars.

A squad of guerrillas fired into the steamer Golden Eagle a few days since at Handolph. Ten horses struck the boat, but no one was hurt.

Quite a number of whisky establishments were closed yesterday, and their contents confiscated, for selling their "stuff" to soldiers.

Eleven deerstags in horns were sent to Nashville yesterday.

All was quiet on the Nashville railroad yesterday.

Thanking at the Officers' Hospital.
Bless that good old custom! Thank God for his good thing! Thank Abraham for appointing the day, and thank Dr. G. McDermont, Surgeon in Charge, and his excellent staff, for the very choice dinner provided for the patients. Never was anything ordered by the Doctor more graciously received. Food is taken with satisfaction with the management of the hospital. It is the hospital par excellence, and the Surgeon deserves all praise.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 23, 1864.

Messrs. Millers: Something should be done for the relief of the wives and children of our brave Kentucky soldiers. A bill has been introduced to devote such sum as the Government will pay for such slaves to the relief of the wives and children of our brave soldiers, and the bill is now before the Legislature.

It has occurred to me that there are many soldiers' wives and children in the city of Louisville, who are in need of relief. I have been thinking of calling upon all who will join in this measure to send me their names immediately, with a statement of the number they are willing to devote, with the name, the company and regiment in which these men were enlisted.

General Knickerbocker, how will you respond? Shall we make a list of names of dollars to dedicate to this patriotic object?

TRUSTEES OF THE CITY OF LOUISVILLE.
I propose to dedicate to this cause such sum as the Government will pay for such slaves to the relief of the wives and children of our brave soldiers, and the bill is now before the Legislature.
